

Pacific Northwest Outsourced Sales Management - an Alternative to hiring a full time Sales Manager

How are sales revenues growing in your small to mid-sized business? Who is managing and developing the sales team? Have you considered outsourcing your Sales Management to an experienced expert?

SEATTLE, WA (BizHWY) May 9, 2017 - Don't let your budget dictate hiring an under qualified and less experienced sales manager when you can hire an expert on an outsourced basis for a fraction of the cost to significantly improve your sales team performance.

I am an accomplished Sales Executive who builds profitable sales results and creates highly effective sales teams. Expert in developing new business sales pipelines and key account development, creating and executing a repeatable sales strategy, generating and achieving key growth performance indicators and improving sales team performance by coaching focused and accountable teams.

Let me know when you would like to discuss how I can provide tremendous value to your company in the Pacific Northwest (Seattle & Portland) as your outsourced part time/fractional Sales Manager. I utilize a 6 step "salesQB -- Roadmap to Guaranteed Growth" process to deliver improved sales team results, implement a strategic sales process and improve your ROI with a more affordable investment in your sales team.
