

Rochester Carpet Cleaning Company Shares The Upholstery Cleaning Process With The Public

In order to successfully clean upholstery, you have to have an understanding of the composition and make-up of various fabrics.

Rochester, NY (BizHWY) May 24, 2018 - Belview Floorcare provides professional cleaning services to home and business owners in Rochester NY.

David Belliveau, the proud owner of Belview Floorcare since 2015, who was also an active Board Director of the Fairport Perinton Chamber of Commerce, states that each piece of upholstered furniture needs special care. Not all types of fabric can be safely cleaned the same way. as one effective and safe method to clean silk will not be applicable when it comes to cleaning velvet.

In fact, delicate fabric types such as silk, velvet, wool, and cotton require a unique way of cleaning and more attention and care than durable and synthetic fabrics.

If you contact Belview Floorcare to clean your furniture, the first step that they will take is by doing a fabric analysis so that their highly trained and professional technicians know what is involved for cleaning that particular type of fabric. They absolutely have to determine the right way to clean it before they even start creating a plan.

It is essential for them to understand that they consider the fabric construction and fiber content, as well as the dye stability before creating any kind of plan of action when it comes to cleaning.

Belview Floorcare only uses industrial strength tools, as well as gentle but tough cleansers to clean and disinfect all types of fabric. They also offer sanitizing and deodorizing treatments, stain guarding treatments, stain and spot removal, pet odor treatments as well as dry and steam cleaning services.

Because Belview Floorcare is known to carefully evaluate all types of fabrics before attempting to create a cleaning plan for them, they are also known to effectively clean and restore antique furniture. Therefore, if you inherited your grandmother's chair that is still in good condition, but needs to be cleaned, you can rely on Belview Floorcare to safely and effectively clean it!

They also guarantee that you will be happy with their services, as customer satisfaction is crucial to Belview Floorcare. They will also be upfront and honest with you when it comes to their approach to cleaning a certain fabric and will explain why when it comes to them needing to utilize a cleaning process that will be more costly.

They are very transparent with their customers and will be there to always answer questions that you have. Belview Floorcare also offers professional carpet cleaning services, as well as tile and grout cleaning, concrete cleaning and epoxy floor installation. That being said, if you are a business owner or homeowner that is in the Rochester NY area, you can count on Belview Floorcare to provide you the professional cleaning and restoring services that you need.
